

The Martial Arts Hall of Fame

held Sept. 2-3, 2005 in Orlando, Florida by the

Seminars on Friday night

The Hall of Fame weekend featured special 50-minute seminars. The primetime spot was Friday evening, which turned out to be an Arnis show featuring the following instructors: Master George Denson, Dayang Guro Edessa Ramos, Master Bram Frank and Master Shishir Inocalla.

Gala Dinner and Achievement Awards on Saturday Night

The CSSDSC delegation received the posthumous for Grandmaster Remy Presas as Founder of Modern Arnis, as well the Grandmaster of the Year Award for GM Roland Dantes.

A number of CSSDSC instructors and directors also received awards for their dedication and excellence in developing, teaching, and promoting tactical and combat arnis.

CSSDSC delegation at the Hall of Fame

From L to R: Greg Beeman (CSSD Firearms Program Director), Edessa Ramos (Switzerland Director) and Steve Shinde (CSSD Firearms Co-Director)

Master Shishir Inocalla proudly shows his award

CSSD National Director George Denson (3rd from R) and his students

From L to R: CSSD ladies Mary Frank, Amy Kirschner and Edessa Ramos

From L to R: Edessa Ramos, Master Shishir Inocalla, Master Bram Frank

From L to R: Thomas and Aiste Lehman (L and C) and Florian Lahner (R), CSSD Germany